These groups get together on an agreed upon schedule and practice Christian fellowship. It's not a bible study, its Christian fellowship. Fill out the connect form to get involved. Don't see an interest on the form that matches yours? Let us know we are always looking to start new groups.

Unison Prayer

Almighty God,

we long to rest

in your gentle arms.

We need your compassion

as we face the challenges and disappointments of life.

When our hearts are hard,

and our concern is only for ourselves,

turn us back to you.

Remind us of your saving love and keep us close to you, Lord.

Love us as only you can love,

in Jesus’ name. Amen.

Scripture Reading

Job 1:13-19; 2:11-13

One day when Job’s sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, a messenger came to Job and said, “The oxen were plowing and the donkeys were grazing nearby, and the Sabeans attacked and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The fire of God fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

While he was still speaking, another messenger came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three raiding parties and swept down on your camels and made off with them. They put the servants to the sword, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

While he was still speaking, yet another messenger came and said, “Your sons and daughters were feasting and drinking wine at the oldest brother’s house, when suddenly a mighty wind swept in from the desert and struck the four corners of the house. It collapsed on them and they are dead, and I am the only one who has escaped to tell you!”

When Job’s three friends, Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite, heard about all the troubles that had come upon him, they set out from their homes and met together by agreement to go and sympathize with him and comfort him. When they saw him from a distance, they could hardly recognize him; they began to weep aloud, and they tore their robes and sprinkled dust on their heads. Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, because they saw how great his suffering was.
